

Terms & Conditions

The life insured

This is the person whose life is insured under your policy. This is you, and anyone you include as your family, and in whom you have an insurable interest.

The start date for the life insured

This is the first day of a month following the acceptance by the the underwriter which we, or someone authorised by us, receives the 1st premium for the life insured. That's when death cover for an accidental death starts, as well as the waiting period for a natural (non-accidental) death for the payment of the full benefit. During a waiting period, premiums must be paid, but policy benefits cannot be claimed. The waiting period is 7 months for natural death cover for you, your immediate family and one year for suicide.

Age of life insured at their start date

You and your spouse must be under the age of the stated maximum age as to the plan taken. Children included as immediate family must be under the age of 22 (Or 26 if studying full time). Cover for your children stops when they turn 22. New Born Child to be registered within 30 days of birth or 7 months probation will apply
